Backyard Garden Grant

2023 Signature Event

JCEEF is a 501(c)(3) tax exempt organization formed to raise funds in support of Johnson County K-State Research and Extension so it may serve the community with low cost or free programming.

Kansas State University is committed to making its services, activities and programs accessible to all participants. If you have special requirements due to a physical, vision, or hearing disability, contact Johnson County K-State Research and Extension, 913-715-7000.

Kansas State University Agricultural Experiment Station and Cooperative Extension Service
K-State Research and Extension is an equal opportunity provider and employer.

2023 HIGHLIGHTS

In 2023 JCEEF was able to award 17 GRANTS equaling over 21 THOUSAND DOLLARS!

This is made possible through your membership support and kind contributions via the Signature Event. Since 1997, we have issued over $170,000 to Extension Programs.

The programs provide research-based, unbiased information to our Johnson County

Community. $15,500 was raised in 2023 from our generous members and $10,000 from the 2023 Signature event in August.

In addition to grants, JCEEF funds some Extension

Office operations including: $1,866 for

Volunteer background checks that are required for all volunteers working with youth, $1,500

for digital equipment, and $5,800 for upgrades to technology in the Extension

Office.

Blue Valley Wilderness Science Center Grant

VITA Grant

YOU MAKE THE DIFFERENCE

Your contributions benefit the Johnson County community by helping us to extend Kansas State University's Land Grant mission of providing researched, scientific, and relevant information into the hands of our residents. We provide programming which addresses K-State Research and Extension's Five Grand Challenges: Global Food Systems, Water & Natural Resources, Health, Community Vitality, and Developing Tomorrow's Leaders.
